And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section I of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited:

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars:—

And whereas by the said Proclamation as subsequently amended it was provided inter alia that the exportation of goods marked "C" in the schedule to such Proclamation should be prohibited to all destinations in European and Asiatic Russia, and in other foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean, except France and French possessions, Italy and Italian possessions and Portugal, and to all ports in any such foreign countries;

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, should be further amended by making the following addition to the schedule to the same:—

That there shall be added to the list of goods marked "C" all goods not already appearing in the list of goods prohibited to all or any destinations in the said Proclamation as amended as aforesaid, with the following exceptions:—

(1) Printed matter of all descriptions;
(2) Personal effects accompanied by their owners.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, the Director of the War Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

No. Fl. 3428, dated 21*st January* 1919.

The following Amendments to Rules 22 and 23 of the Public Branch of the State Life Insurance are hereby published for information:—

Amendment of Rule 22. (Public Branch).

An insured person may assign his Policy to another or nominate any person to receive the amount assured by it in case of his death. Such assignment, or nomination made in the form prescribed, shall be registered by the Secretary in the books of his office and the amount assured by the Policy may be paid to such assignee or nominee on satisfactory proof of death of the Insured and surrender of the Policy provided that no notice to the contrary is served on the Secretary by a competent Court of Law. Should the Policy mature in the ordinary course, during subsistence of such assignment or nomination, the amount of an assigned Policy will be paid to the assignee and that of a Policy in respect of which nomination has been made to the Insured himself.

In the event of death of the Insured before an assignment of his Policy or a nomination therefor has been recognised by the Secretary and the President of the Insurance Committee, the amount assured by it shall be paid to his legal heirs declared as such by a competent Court of Law in the Mysore State and on the surrender of the Policy.

Note I.—The Insurance Office will not admit or express any opinion as to the form, legality, validity, or effect of an assignment and the Insured shall satisfy himself on these points before he submits the assignment for Registration.

Note II.—An authenticated extract of the Mortuary Register of the place where the Insured has died and the statement of two respectable persons who have personally attended the cremation or the burial of the dead body of the Insured, may be considered sufficient proof of death.

Amendment of Rule 23. (Public Branch).

When the person nominated dies before the Insured, the nomination becomes impso facto void and the heirs of the nominee will have no claim.

When more than one person are nominated, the sum assured will be payable to all of them jointly or to survivors at the date of death of the insured. The heirs of nominees dying before the insured will not be recognised.
